

Developed vs Developing Countries

How can we make the world a fairer place?

Developed countries (such as Italy) are mainly located in the Northern hemisphere. Developing countries (such as Brazil) are mainly located in the Southern hemisphere. Climate can impact a country's development.

Banksy

Banksy is an anonymous English-based street artist and activist. Banksy's work is known for his messages of activism against inequality and campaigns to bring about political or social change.

Jean-Michel Basquiat was an American artist who used painting and drawing to talk about history, race, and unfair treatment in society. His work helps people think about inequality and the challenges faced by different communities.

Jean-Michel Basquiat

Migration

Some people leave home to get a job or an education. Others are forced to flee persecution or human rights violations such as torture. Millions flee from armed conflicts or other crises or violence. Some no longer feel safe.

Refugee charities, such as Refugee Roots and Nottingham Refugee Forum, work to support those who have fled terrible situations to help give them an equal opportunity in life.

Trade

Trade a way of buying and selling goods and services. Ports and industrial areas provide jobs and support economic growth.

Fairtrade is a way of buying and selling products that allows the farmers to be paid a fair price for their produce and have better working conditions.

	Key Vocabulary
The Human Development Index (HDI)	A system used to measure development in three areas: health, education, and standard of living.
Socioeconomic	The social and financial level of individuals in society.
Migrant	a person who moves from one place to another, especially in order to find work or better living conditions.
Refugee	Refugees are people who have fled war, violence, conflict or persecution and have crossed an international border to find safety in another country.
Asylum Seeker	Is someone who has arrived in a country and asked for asylum.
Trade	Trade is the exchange of goods or services for money where the price is agreed between two parties or countries.
Import	Bring (goods or services) into a country from abroad for sale.
Export	The action of buying and selling goods and services.
Industrial areas	Areas where businesses and factories convert raw materials into goods that can be sold.
Economy	It is a system for dealing with money and wealth.
Economic Growth	An increase in the size of a country's economy (goods and services) over a period of time.

Mineral Resources

Coal Oil Diamond

Countries with mineral resources are more likely to develop quicker because they can sell these for profit.