

Creative Homework – Summer 2026

This term, our enquiry question is: "What legacy will you leave?"

We'd love for you to continue your learning at home and have a go at some of the suggested activities below! Or, if you have your own creative idea to enhance your learning about the Romans, we'd love to see what you get up to. Please bring it into school or send it on Dojo to your teacher.

Choose an aspect of Roman life: Roman Houses, Roman Baths, or Roman Clothing and create an advertisement leaflet.

Create your own Roman Mosaics using cut paper, pasta shapes, seeds etc. Try and create one which would leave a legacy on the world!

Write your own Roman Numerals Times Tables. Write our one or more Times tables using roman numerals only!

I II III IV
VI VII VIII
X XI XII

Create a Timeline of the life and legacy of the Roman Empire – include key dates as well as key people.

Create a 3D model of the amazing Colosseum or a place which is fit for a gladiator fight. You could use Lego or any other material.

Research and create a poster/fact file about the different Roman gods/goddesses (before Christianity).

Research and create a fact file about Roman emperors and explain the legacy that they left behind.

Research some different tools and weapons used by the Romans and create models of these using cardboard.

Research and create some different Ancient Roman recipes. You also could write a set of instructions or a food review after.

An Ancient Roman Recipe

Roman Spelt Bread

Roman Honey Biscuit Recipe

The Romans loved luxury and used honey in lots of their recipes to sweeten them. These honey biscuits are simple to make and the Romans served them to guests, as well as eating them for breakfast.
